HORSE RABIES

On October 10, a horse which was bitten by the same dog that day went mad this morning and was shot. The owner of the horse, William J. Sink, heard a racket in his stable. Hurrying to the stable he discovered the horse beating its head against the sides of the stall and

When the horse saw Sink it did its utmost to get at him. Sink got a neighbor to shoot the horse. A veterinarian who examined the brain said the animal unquestionably had been suffering from rabies.

MUSIC MASTER ON TRIAL FOR 'STRAD' THEFT

James Murdock, a Dorchester area teacher, living at No. 100 Elm Hill avenue was on trial before Judge Murray in the Municipal Court to-day, charged by a grand jury with the crime of carrying a dangerous weapon.

Stradivarius violin. During the hearing Murdock admitted that while he has taught violin playing in Dorchester for two years, and had twenty-two pupils, he violin.

Smith said that he secured the violin in question with a view to earning money for himself, but didn't know how to play it.

He said he had been employed by a woman until March, when he employed her to teach him to play the violin, and that he owned a genuine "Strad."

He said he had been carrying the violin two weeks ago, and that when the musician brought back the violin it was broken.

Smith said his violin was made

You! Dyspeptics

What An Eminent Medical Man Says Dyspepsia Really Is.
Then Gain Hope

"This action called Dyspepsia is the greatest torment of civilized life, and is the most common cause of unnatural functional difficulty than has a structural disease."

The same authority has classified dyspepsia as a functional form due to relations with other organs which are in a morbid and unhealthy state, which is characterized as a reflex action, and is caused by indigestion and vomiting caused by irritation of brain, lungs, liver or uterus.

The dyspepsia caused by the scanty supply of gastric juice, made evident by slowness of digestion, long retention of food in the stomach, distention, flatulence, and belching, is accompanied by weighty and uneasy feelings at pit of stomach, decomposition of food in alimentary canal causing fetid air, and flatulence.

HUTCHINSON WILL FILED IN SALEM COURT

LYNN, Nov. 4. The will of John W. Hutchinson, better known as the Bard of Glen Rock, was filed at the Probate Court at Salem today by Frederick H. Nichols, conservator of the estate. It is said the document disposes of his property in equal parts to all surviving relatives. The value of this property is about $250,000 and is mostly invested in real estate. His widow, Mrs. J. W. Hutchinson, has four children, Mrs. John Campbell, her two sons and her daughter, and his grandson, Ralph Hutchinson, are named as executors in this distribution.

2 KILLED; 4 HURT IN N. Y. ELECTION RIOT

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Two men killed and four wounded in a fight, and several women and children injured, was the record early today of rioting among election crowds throughout the city.

In a pitched battle between bands of political fanatics at Avenue A, between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets, John M. McNeill, a bystander, was hit over the head by a stone, falling and mortally wounded.

GIRL IN AUTO LEADS IN HOT ROBBER CHASE

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A highwayman held up Mrs. Robert Lissauer, who resides in the handsome Alvarado apartments, No. 111 Park avenue, as she was walking to Madison avenue, within a few blocks of her home, and, after knocking her unconscious, made away with her gold chateau band ring. He was caught after an exciting chase in an automobile.

Mrs. Lissauer held tightly to the chatenot so much about the will, but a report indicating that she is going to find out getting her legal adjustment of the money, something that the other heirs are apparently unwilling to allow her more than a quarter of the estate left by the dead lord of High Rise.

An amiable adjustment of the family differences is suggested, however, and interest in court is not looked for.

LAUDER, GUEST OF M'GREGOR
AT GORRONS

Harry M. Lauder, Scott's ambassador, who recently entertained King Edward for three hours in the palace and was given a diamond pin as a token of royal appreciation, will receive an honor in this city when he appears on Monday evening at a week's engagement never before bestowed upon a single favorite in Boston.

The Highland Dress Association, with four hundred members, will give a ball to the theatre, and President Alexander McTear of the Scots' Charitable Society has taken four boxes and invited Governor Lauder to the ball. Mr. Lauder will be entertained at dinner at the Algonquin Club on Monday evening by Mr. McTear, who will give a special entertainment while in this city from his countrymen who are residents of Boston.

ACTRESS WINS RICH HUSBAND

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Miss Mabel Shepherd, formerly a chorus girl in "The Top of the World" company, will be married in of New York. Mr. Hunter was formerly a social leader and merchant prince of Memphis, Tenn., the home of Miss Shepherd. Some time ago the first Mrs. Hunter committed suicide before an altar, exercising cannibal and infanticide, which she carefully arranged for the purpose. Her husband was so affected by her death that he gave up his business in Memphis, and has been traveling for a New York firm. He met Miss Shepherd when she was playing a violin. Studenaker, and induced her to marry the company. She remained in Chicago in the Alexander Hotel when the company left the city.

stepped out and delivered a blow that knocked Mrs. Lisauer down. The young woman was riding alone, as Mrs. Lisauer had been told.

"Stop quick," cried the occupant to the chauffeur, "something odd, made a change at the highwayman with them."

The chauffeur was knocked down and the woman in the automobile, returned to the machine.

The chauffeur jumped to the machine, turned on top speed and claved after the automobile, which was now on the highway, and heaved the thief, throwing away.

The automobile caught up with the car, and the thief was thrown out.

The robber ran for it, a step or two, and then he was seen to be running to purchase a ticket, but sped through the waiting room and toward the train.

A train came in and the man made a dash for it.

The robber planted a blow in Hensler's chest and the policeman retaliated with a punch of his club. They fought until the robber gave in.

At the East Sixty-seventh street police station the man said he was James Graham, twenty-three, No. 213 West Forty-fifth street, a clerk out of a job. He had a handful of pawn tickets in his vest pocket.

you to attend upon any of the days that she has announced to receive her friends. Of course, if she is to reside in the same town with you, it is correct just the same to write the note at once on receipt of the marriage announcement, but you should also either call or mail your cards upon one of the days that she has appointed to be received for intimate correspondence.

Notes of condolence are very difficult to write. The personal element necessarily enters very much into it, as it is only to intimate friends that such are sent. However, when grief or death is entertained, or at least when it is expected, it is not unusual in which you have called socially at any time, a note of condolence is but proper. The most formal of such might read:

Find Out What a Six Can Do and You'll Not Be Contented Until You Have One

Far be it from us to make you dissatisfied with your present car. But we do wish you owned a car as good as the self-starting, sweet running

WINTON SIX

Then you would be satisfied. Then you would be a greater enthusiast over your car than ever before. Does your car start on high, go the route through traffic and over hills on high, and finish on high?

That's what the flexible Winton Six can do. But flexibility is only one of its virtues. Other virtues are quietness, absence of vibration, conquering hill work, plenty of reserve power, easy on tires, economy of operation, minimized cost of upkeep (as shown by 65,000 miles on $15 upkeep expense), and saving on purchase price.

48 H.P. Winton Six with five-passenger or runabout body, at $3000. You can't get it equal for $4499.99. 60 H.P. Winton Six, with seven-passenger or runabout body, at $4500. The exclusive car for 1909.
